Championing Child Rights in a Changing World

Our Strengths

Members of the ChildFund Alliance operate both individually and collectively across humanitarian and development contexts, spanning the Humanitarian–Development Peace (HDP) Nexus.

As a global network, the ChildFund Alliance brings:

Deep contextual expertise in the countries and crises where members work, grounded in long-term local presence.

Strong, trusted relationships with communities and stakeholders, enabled through locally led and community-driven approaches.

Integrated programming designed to deliver durable change while reducing risks of violence, exploitation and exclusion affecting children and young people.

A proven track record of child and youth participation, particularly among marginalized communities, in decision-making and policy processes that shape their lives.

Across acute humanitarian emergencies, protracted crises and underserved fragile settings, we partner with children, young people and their communities to identify and address the root causes of fragility, conflict and poverty—reducing exposure to violence, exploitation and inequality.

Working in complementarity, our members mobilize diverse technical and sectoral expertise and experience.

This collective strength ensures programs remain flexible, cost efficient, timely and responsive to rapidly changing and complex global contexts.

ChildFund Alliance European Union (EU) Office

Established in 2014, and based in Brussels, the EU Office team connects global evidence, local realities and children's voices with European decisions and policies that shape children's lives worldwide.

The EU Office team engages EU institutions, policymakers, and Brussels-based networks and partners to influence and shape legislative, policy, programming and budgeting processes to advance children's rights, while expanding access to EU and global funding.

The team collaborates with members across Europe and worldwide to ensure that children's rights remain at the center of development, humanitarian, and climate action.

The EU Office team works in close alignment with the Secretariat in New York, which leads the Alliance's daily operations, sets common standards and policies, and coordinates global advocacy.
