

Call for nominations Children's Peace Prize 2017 now open

January 26, 2017

ChildFund Alliance encourages you to nominate a boy or girl for the prestigious International Children's Peace Prize.

KidsRights each year awards the prestigious International Children's Peace Prize to a brave boy or girl, regardless of race, place of birth or social standing, who has demonstrated the skill and determination necessary to personally improve the rights of children. These children deserve recognition and a global platform to continue their work on an international scale.

The winner will receive the statuette 'Nkosi, which shows how a child sets the world in motion, a study grant, and a worldwide platform to promote his or her ideals to the benefit of children's rights. Furthermore, KidsRights will invest a project fund of €100,000 in projects that are closely connected to the winner's area of work, in the country of the winner.

KidsRights calls upon individuals and organisations worldwide to nominate eligible children or youth under 18 years. The nomination form and the full list of criteria can be found on the website of the International Children's Peace Prize: www.childrenspeaceprize.org. The deadline for entries is March 17th 2017.
